

Alex Ruzanic

A Pittsburgh native, Alex Ruzanic grew up in the North Hills and later attended Penn State University, where he graduated with a Bachelor of Music in Composition and Conducting. He went on to receive his Masters of Divinity at the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary (RPTS), while also spending half of his time at Gordon-Cornwell Theological Seminary. He has been working in youth ministry for the past twenty-five years and is currently the Director of Youth and Missional Outreach at Beulah Presbyterian Church. He has also had many opportunities to be involved in the life changing ministry of Missions.

Alex and his wife, Beth, have been married for 22 years and have four children (Annie 21, Lucy 19, Jack 17, Wyatt 13) together. He and his family love sports and the outdoors, especially football, English soccer (Manchester City – go Citizens!), and hanging out together at the pool during the summer. Alex also love to play and study music, all styles and genres. A true Pittsburgher at heart, he is a loyal fan of the Steelers, Pirates, and Penguins. A man blessed by the gift of his family, he considers being a husband and a father the greatest joy of his life.
