I would not be who I am today if I had not grown up at Beulah Presbyterian Church. After graduating from college I worked for the Presbyterian Church in Bogotá, Colombia, and then I spent 40 years in the desert, otherwise known as Southern California. The move back to Pittsburgh was one of the best decisions of my life, and I have found myself again truly at home here. My job as Congregational Care Assistant, doing home and hospital visitation for the church, is the best I have ever had, allowing me to take the love of the congregation to those who can no longer come to church, and to everyone who lands in the hospital. It is challenging and delightful work. I have no office or phone at the church – the joke is that if you see me at church I'm not working – but I can be reached at 412-727-7251 or via email at aturnock@beulahpresby.org.
