

Carolyn Leah

Carolyn has lived in the Pittsburgh area for most of her life. She has been serving the church in Christian Education in a variety of capacities for more than 30 years. She has worked in three Presbyterian churches within the Pittsburgh area and for eight years for a national afterschool ministry program. She was called to her current position as Director of Christian Discipleship at Beulah Presbyterian Church in 2009. Carolyn is a Certified Christian Educator in the PCUSA since 2017 and is currently working on a certification in Spiritual Formation.

Her two adult children and their spouses and three grandchildren, make up her family. At home, she enjoys time with her cat, Colby and dog, Savannah. She loves hiking in the mountains and taking photographs of nature and wildlife. Her favorite "God spot" is Shenandoah National Park and she tries to travel there at least once a year for rest and renewal. She has completed the training to be a Pennsylvania Master Naturalist. She enjoys helping people integrate their spiritual life with the wonder of nature.

Her true passion is to meet people where they are in their faith journey and to help them grow in their faith journey through new experiences with scripture, serving, worshiping and being in relationship with one another and with Christ.
